Color Wheel Software description Color Wheel is a tiny plugin that add a color wheel to any Photoshop element. It comes with a small set of eye-tracking features that let you navigate around the color wheel without losing your place. Setting In the panel of the plugin, you can customize the following settings: Color Wheel Appearance The color wheel can be customized with a different type of color wheel, such as the classic color wheel, random palette, random color wheel, and (a special version of) the color wheel of the 1990 Macintosh. Each of the different versions can be positioned anywhere on the canvas, and rotated to match the orientation of the image. Color Wheel Zoom This setting determines how the color wheel images will be scaled when an eye is placed on any of the color wheels. Color Wheel Zoom Speed This setting determines how fast the color wheel will move to wherever the eye is located. Eye Tracking Settings This setting determines how fast the plugin will move the color wheel to the eyes location. Support options This plugin may require you to have the install some Adobe web plug-ins that the system will prompt you to install as part of the installation process. An installation checklist is available as Adobe Acrobat PDF document. License The Color Wheel plugin is a shareware software. Related software The Color Wheel plugin is not an add-in but a Photoshop plugin. You can find many similar tools included in the Lightroom 4 or Photoshop CS4 software.
